Thank you.

BTW, due to the confusion with the "i" and "j" in the original Mailchimp tiny URL, we've created an easier one. The original will work, but this one may be easier if you are giving it out:

<https://tinyurl.com/vbbid-mail>

Please let me know which is more important - the speed of scheduling the meeting, or having both of us there.

Mark and I are unlikely to have much combined availability this week, and my availability next week is poor due to Board mtg prep (9th.) We're also in the middle of three simultaneous contract negotiations, with a possible fourth next week.

Tara,

I believe our Executive Staff would like to meet with you and your Board President, if he can make it, to discuss issues pertaining to Venice Beach BID contract compliance. Are you available this week to meet?

Thanks.

Rita

P.S. I hope to get our quarterlies caught up this week. Depends a little bit on board prep workload.

Our website is not yet developed, which we have previously discussed. We own the domains. We are interviewing some firms this week; timeline for work is TBD. Logo development is likely priority #1 as we need that for uniforms, letterhead, signage and more. A basic initial website is likely priority #2.

Hmm...I typed in Venice Beach BID on the browser, as well as www.venicebeachbid.com, and get an error message:

404. That's an error.

The requested URL / was not found on this server. That's all we know.

The link has not changed. But when it is printed with underline (hyperlink) some people think the last letter is an "i" rather than a "j."

I have (just two) reports of the link not working, but I think people are entering it incorrectly.

I've rechecked the link I've emailed, made sure it was correct on our latest mailing, and even typed it in manually...on two different devices, using two different browsers. All attempts work for me.

Would you be so kind as to try it and let me know if you have any issues?
